

Company's Articles of Association in relation to the Shareholders' Meeting

Section 5

Board of Directors

Article 17 The Board of Directors of the Company shall consist of not less than five (5) members. Not less than one-half (1/2) of the directors shall have residence within the Kingdom of Thailand.

Directors shall be the competent persons and incompatibility under Public Company Limited Act and other applicable laws.

Directors may or may not be the shareholders.

The board of directors has the power and duties to manage the company in accordance with its objects and articles of association and resolutions of meetings of shareholders.

Article 18 The election of Directors at a general meeting of shareholders shall be carried out in accordance with the following rules and procedures:

(1) A shareholder shall have one vote for each share he/she holds or represents.

(2) At the election of Directors, the shareholders shall vote for each individual candidate nominated for Directors, but not exceeding the number of Directors required for that election. The vote shall not be distributed.

(3) The candidates shall be ranked in order descending from the highest number of votes received to the lowest, and shall be appointed as Directors in that order until all of the Director positions are filled. Where the votes cast for candidates in descending order are tied, which would otherwise cause the number of Directors to be exceeded, the remaining appointment shall be made by the chairman of the meeting who shall have a casting vote.

Article 19 At every annual general meeting of shareholders, at least one-third (1/3) of the Directors, or if their number is not multiple of three, then the number nearest to one-third (1/3), must retire from the office.

The Directors retiring from office in the first and second years after registration of the conversion to public limited company shall be selected by drawing lots. In subsequent years, the Director who has held office longest shall retire.

A retiring Director is eligible for re-election.

Article 22 A meeting of shareholders may pass a resolution removing any director from office prior to the expiration of the term, with the votes of not less than three-fourths of the number of shareholders present at the meeting and entitled to vote and also with the aggregate number of shares of not less than one half of the number of shares held by the shareholders present at the meeting and entitled to vote.

Article 28 Directors shall not operate any similar business in competition to the business of the company, or become a partner in an ordinary or an unlimited partner in any limited partnership or a director in any private limited company or public limited company which operates the same business as the company, whether for his/her own or other persons' benefits, unless he/she has notified this matter in the shareholders' meeting before the approval of a resolution for his/her appointment.

Section 6

Shareholders' Meeting

Article 33 An annual general meeting of shareholders shall be held within four (4) months after the end of the accounting year of the Company.

Any other shareholders' meeting shall be called "Extraordinary General Meeting". The Board of Directors may call an Extraordinary General Meeting whenever it is appropriate and can be conducted through any electronics mean.

One or more shareholder(s) holding not less than ten (10) percent of the total issued shares may request in writing to the Board of Directors to hold an extra-ordinary meeting of shareholders at any time but they shall clearly specify reasons for such request in the notice. In such case, the Board of Directors must hold a meeting of shareholders within forty-five (45) days from the date of receipt of the notice.

If the Board of directors does not hold the meeting within the period of time specified in paragraph three, the shareholders who subscribe their names or other shareholders holding shares amounting to the required amount may call the meeting themselves within forty-five (45) days as from the date on which the period of time in paragraph two ends. In this case, the meeting in deemed a shareholders meeting called by the Board of Directors and the Company shall be responsible for the expense incurred therefrom and shall reasonably facilitate the meeting.

In the case where the quorum of the meeting called by the shareholders under paragraph three cannot be constituted as specified in Article 35, the shareholders under paragraph four shall compensate the Company the expenses incurred from such meeting.

Article 34 In calling a shareholder meeting, the Board of Directors shall prepare a written notice of the meeting. The notice shall state the place, date, time, agenda of the meeting and the matters to be proposed to the meeting in reasonable details by indicating clearly whether it is the matter proposed for acknowledgement, for approval or for consideration, as the case may be, including the related opinions of the Board of Directors. The said notice shall be delivered to the shareholders via postal mail or any electronic channels and the Registrar under the public limited companies' law for their information at least seven (7) days prior to the date of the meeting. The notice of the meeting shall be also published in a newspaper or electronic platforms for three (3) consecutive days at least three (3) days prior to the meeting date. In this regard, the criteria for the delivery of the meeting invitation and the publication via electronic media are in accordance with the applicable laws.

The meeting venue will be located in the province where the company's main office is situated or in a nearby province as determined by the Board of Directors. In addition, if the meeting is conducted through electronic media, it shall be deemed that the company's main office is the meeting venue.

Article 35 In a shareholders' meeting, a quorum shall be constituted by at least twenty-five (25) shareholders present in person or by proxy (if any) or half (1/2) of all shareholders representing up to one-third (1/3) of all issued shares.

If within one (1) hour from the time fixed for the shareholders' meeting, the required quorum is not constituted, the meeting, if called by a request of shareholders, shall be dissolved. If such meeting is not called by the shareholders' request, another meeting shall be convened, and a notice of the meeting shall be sent to the shareholders not less than seven (7) days prior to the meeting date. At such meeting, no quorum shall be required.

Each shareholder shall be entitled to execute a proxy to attend and vote at meetings on their behalf, provided that no more than one proxy per shareholder and it could be electronic proxy, according to the form prescribed by the Registrar. The proxy shall be submitted to the Chairman of the Board or the designated person at the meeting venue before the appointed proxy holder can participate in the meeting. The appointed proxy holder for such purposes shall be limited to an individual, regardless of the number of shares held by the shareholder.

Article 36 The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside over the shareholders' meeting. In the event that the Chairman is unavailable or unable to perform his/her duties, the Vice Chairman shall act as the presiding Chairman. If the Vice Chairman is unavailable or unable to perform his/her duties, the shareholders present at the meeting shall elect one of their members to be the presiding Chairman.

Article 37 In voting, the subscribers shall have votes equal to the number of shares subscribed by them. One share is entitled to one vote. Shareholders who have conflict of interest in any specific agenda shall abstain from the vote. Beside the director's election agenda, a resolution of the shareholders' meeting shall be approved as follows:
